NEEDS OF THE ARMY

Physical Standards

FIGHTING FOR VOLUNTARY SYSTEM

The urgency of the need for recruits for the Regular Army, the Territorial Army, and the Supplementary Reserve was emphasized by Lieutenant-General Sir Harry Knox, Adjutant-General to the Forces, at an informal conference recently at the War Office, states "The Times."

At the same time it was announced that from December 1 the physical standards for the Army are to be made more elastic to allow of the admission of men who could be used for rearward services.

The Adjutant-General discussed several of the problems with which the Army is faced in getting recruits—the fact that the Army is not a popular profession at the moment; the attractions of other branches of the Services; the change in social conditions; improved trade; and the physical standard of the nation. They must, he said, have public opinion behind them. The numbers required for the current year, which ends on March 31, were: Regular Army, 37,000; Territorial Army, 21,000; Supplementary Reserve, 21,000. These were big figures for voluntary enlistment, but they were big because the debit balance was carried forward from year to year. The Supplementary Reserve of Infantry was not a failure. No one ever imagined there would be a big rush of recruits, but recruiting was going on fairly steadily, and they were tapping a new source of supply.

UNFIT RECRUITS MADE FIT

Changed social conditions and improved trade were two heartening facts. The Army was getting as many men who wanted to become soldiers as ever it did; it was not getting men who were forced to enlist because of hunger. With regard to the physical standard of the nation, out of 58,000 recruits who presented themselves in 1935 for enlistment in the Regular Army, 31,000 were rejected on medical and physical grounds. That meant that about 47 per cent. did not come up to the Army standard. If the physical standard of the nation could be improved to the standard of the Army there would be no recruiting problem. Nearly all the "sub-standard" recruits at Aldershot were, after a month's training, already up to the physical standard of the Army. This showed that could be done, and they hoped the experiment would justify its extension.

The shortage of recruits was not altogether a question of pay. Army pay did not compare unfavourably with the average wage rate for men of 18 to 20 in 36 or the less-skilled trades at age 18, and at age 20 there was still a slight balance in favour of the Army. The other side of the picture was service abroad. Many men spent three-quarters of their serving time abroad, and they returned to find themselves out of touch with conditions at home, and faced with the difficulty of getting employment. In a good unit discipline was not irksome. India was unpopular because of the heat and the tedium, but a lot was being done to improve the life of the British soldier there. He had heard from one divisional commander that 400 men went trekking into the hills, and six men of The East Surrey Regiment climbed mountains and glaciers to the source of the Ganges and were feasted and garlanded by the headman of the village, there.

AN HONOURABLE PROFESSION

The Army had been starved for years, and they had to make up the arrears that had accumulated. These could not be wiped off without expenditure, but what was to be done in that matter was for the decision of the Government. Whatever decision was come to, they would not get the men they wanted unless public opinion asserted itself. A man must be made to feel that in joining the Service he was joining an honourable profession, of which he, his relatives, and the country were proud. They must get men by voluntary methods. What they were really fighting for, therefore, was the voluntary system.

Major-General D. K. Bernard, Director of Recruiting and Organization, explaining the intention to make the physical standards more elastic, said that, instead of every man being required to be of A1 standard, recruits would be graded by the medical recruiting officers. A1 men would be required for the infantry, ca-

MOLLISON 'PLANE IN DISPUTE

Irish Sweep Trust Claim Ownership

'BOUGHT MACHINE TWO YEARS AGO'

A claim by the Irish Sweep Trust authorities to the ownership of the aeroplane Miss Dorothy, in which Mr. James Mollison flew the Atlantic, was mentioned recently to Mr. Justice Bennett in the Chancery Division.

Mr. K. E. Shelley applied on behalf of the Irish Hospitals Trust for leave to serve short notice of motion for an action by the Trust against Mr. Mollison and Rollason Aircraft Services Ltd., of Croydon Airport.

An injunction was sought to restrain Mr. Mollison and Rollason Aircraft Services from using the aeroplane Miss Dorothy, on which the plaintiffs claimed ownership, and which was originally registered under the mark "E1-AAZ," formerly known as the "Irish Swoop."

It was understood, said Mr. Shelley, that Mr. Mollison intended to fly the machine to South Africa as soon as the weather was suitable. The plaintiffs claimed that they bought the machine two years ago, and that it had been in America, where they had not chosen to "pursue" it.

Now the machine had come within the jurisdiction of the English courts they were most anxious that the question of title should be investigated at once.

Mr. Shelley added that he was not in a position to make an ex parte application for an interim injunction without giving Mr. Mollison an opportunity of being heard. Mr. Mollison was in any event, a perfectly innocent party.

"SECOND SALE."

"The persons we say are to blame," he continued, "are the Bellanca Aeroplane Company, who purported to sell the machine to Mr. Mollison, having previously sold it to us. They are in America."

Mr. Justice Bennett: I suppose you could take some steps there to establish the plaintiffs' right to the aeroplane?

Mr. Shelley: We could have gone to America and taken proceedings in the American courts.

"Neither Mr. Mollison nor Rollason Aircraft Services, who have the custody of the machine, are outside the jurisdiction," added Mr. Shelley, "and I am in a position to bring an action against them."

Replying to the judge, Mr. Shelley said the action was a claim for a declaration that the machine belonged to the Irish Hospitals Trust, and an injunction to prevent it being moved from the jurisdiction of the English courts. Alternatively, damages for detinue or conversion were sought.

Mr. Justice Bennett: How long have the plaintiffs been out of possession of this aeroplane?

Mr. Shelley: Something like 18 months.

Ultimately Mr. Justice Bennett granted leave to serve short notice of motion.

CLAIM GIVEN UP

It was announced that the Irish Hospitals Trust's claim to the aeroplane Miss Dorothy had been settled. The statement, was signed by Capt. Spencer Freeman, on behalf of the Trust, by Mr. Mollison, and by Mr. W. A. Rollason.

The Trust is satisfied, it stated, that Mr. Mollison is an innocent party, and therefore it relinquishes any claim to the "plane."

This "gesture to a fine sportsman" is made promptly. It was added, in order that Mr. Mollison's flight to the Cape might not be hindered.

Mr. Mollison recognizes that the Trust took action to protect its legal interests, and not for any reason inimical to himself.

No further claim will be made against Rollason Aircraft Services Ltd.

valry, and artillery. The recruits would be graded in four categories; those in the lowest would probably be defective from the point of view of flat feet, teeth, weight, &c., and they would be available for employment in the rearward services.

Probably about 1,000 to 1,500 men would be allowed to come in under these conditions. They would do their job perfectly well, and yet the fighting troops in the front line would still be getting A1 men. Up to now the Army medical standards had been rather too rigid. They wanted A1 men and often had been using them for C3 jobs.

MARINES PENSIONER'S 100TH BIRTHDAY

The King's Congratulations

Portsmouth's oldest Royal Marine pensioner, ex-Colour Sergeant James Gray, celebrated his 100th birthday recently.

He joined the Royal Marines in 1854 and, retired after 21 years' service, has drawn his pension for 51 years.

Among Mr. Gray's birthday greetings was a telegram of congratulation from the King. His visitors included Brigadier A. G. E. Bourne, Colonel Commandant, Eastney Barracks, who brought him a dressing gown from the officers of the Portsmouth Division Royal Marines, and General Sir Richard Foster, who called to see him for a chat about the old days.

He also sent a letter of good wishes in which he said, "The Corps of which you are so proud and which is so proud of you, is going great guns, and the youngsters of to-day is worthily upholding the great traditions which you and others have set an example."

Gray spoke of the days when the men received one pound of biscuits "as hard as bricks," and how he often exchanged his tin of rum for another man's biscuits.

REBEL BLOCKADE OF CATALAN

Paris, Nov. 20. General Franco, leader of the Nationalists troops, is reported to have declared a blockade of the port of Catalan, in order to prevent supplies from Soviet Russia reaching the Government forces.

Another message reports that the cruiser of the Nationalist troops, bombarded Barcelona, on Thursday night. The city is reported to have been subjected to two heavy bombardments, after which the cruiser proceeded to Palamos and shelled the harbour of that city. It is further stated that the cruiser sank a Soviet Russian vessel, carrying a cargo of ammunition destined for the Spanish Reds.

Strong forces of aeroplanes and warships are reported to be concentrated by the Nationalists at the largest of the Balearic Islands, Mallorca, which in view of its geographical situation, is an excellent base for rendering a blockade of Barcelona effective.

Nationalist warships operating from the island, are stated to have intercepted two Soviet Russian vessels carrying war material, and forced the crews of these vessels to make for ports occupied by the Nationalists.

An index number will be issued in time for publication on the 20th of each month, and as the course of these traffic receipts has always afforded a valuable indication of world trading and commercial activity, it is hoped that, in addition to providing an indication of the Company's traffic for its stockholders, it will be found of value to observers of world economic conditions.

Index Numbers

These index numbers represent the estimated monthly receipts from traffic as related to comparable traffic in the year 1929. It should be noted that since 1929 the operation, in various overseas areas has been taken over at different dates by the local associated companies, and the total figures for 1929 taken for purposes of comparison in establishing the index 100 have therefore been adjusted when necessary by the omission of the receipts accruing in the areas affected. The index numbers are, in consequence, all shown upon a comparable basis.

Monthly figures reduced to working day average.

A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

The reason Warner Bros. picture, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," as produced by Prof. Max Reinhardt is conceded to be the world's greatest film, is demonstrated by the accompanying composite photograph.

This unusual picture shows a few of the high lights of the production, which is on at the Majestic Theatre to-day.

Victor Jory, in the role of "Oberon, King of the Fairies," Anita Louise, in the role of "Titania, Queen of the Fairies," are magnificent.

Between "Puck" and Jory the liliesome figure of Nina Theilade, world famous prima ballerina, who leads the magnificent ballets of the production calls for special praise.

Next in line are the regal figures of Verree Teasdale and Ian Hunter, who have the roles of the Duke of Athens and the Amazon Queen.

James Cagney, after his transformation into a monster with the head of a donkey being wooed by Anita Louise plays a leading role.

GIRLS' DORMITORY

An experiment in "girl values" for a straight dramatic production is seen in "Girls' Dormitory," Twentieth Century-Fox production showing to-day at the Queen's Theatre, starring Simone Simon, the brilliant French star, making her American debut with Herbert Marshall and Ruth Chatterton.

Ordinarily this thing called "girl values" is restricted to musical productions, where it is shown in the form of fantastic dance routines featuring the feminine form.

But Darryl Zanuck, believing the values were the same, whether in musical or dramatic productions, engaged 100-odd girls—none over 18 years of age—for the picture.

The girls are in formation, as in musical productions, but this takes the form of marching to and from class rooms, exercises and mass gymnastics in simple dresses of like cut, colour and design.

The effect, insofar as the traditional "girl values" is concerned, is the same as though these youngsters were tap dancing in a revue.

100 girls are an integral part of the drama. Indeed, the picture couldn't do without them, yet apart from this they perform a second function of pleasing the eyes without the artificial aid of bare legs and intricate dancing.

Constance Collier, J. Edward Bromberg, Dixie Dunbar, John Qualin and Shirley Deane are also featured in "Girls' Dormitory."

MASS MARRIAGE

103 Couples Registered In Canton

The 5th Mass Marriage of Canton which will be formally held at the San Yat-sen Memorial Hall on December 8, next, will have the highest record of participants, as compared with those of the last four Mass Marriages, states a Canton source.

Up to date a hundred and three couples have registered at the Municipal Bureau of Social Affairs.

LIONEL BARRYMORE SUSPENDED

Possibly as a preliminary to a renewal of the drive to "Unlouse" the film industry, the Actors, Equity Association has announced the indefinite suspension of 24 of its members for failure to join the Screen Actors' Guild.

Such prominent stars as Lionel Barrymore, Alice Brady, Jack Oakie, and Eric Linden find themselves unable to work in any Equity production, since Equity members may not work with non-members.

The action has had no immediate effect on the suspended stars, not hampering their film work, but it would prevent their appearance in the legitimate theatre, in which Equity's position is so powerful that producers would decline to engage non-members.

Equity spent a large sum in an abortive effort to "Unlouse" film stars in 1929, and has since been biding its time, slowly but steadily strengthening its stand in the film industry as well as the theatre.

THE GREAT ZIEGFELD

At last, the perfect entertainment picture has been achieved! It is Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's musical extravaganza, "The Great Ziegfeld," now at the King's and Alhambra Theatres. It is a picture that possesses all, and even more, than its advance notices have claimed for it.

This giant musical suggested by the life of the world's greatest showman, the late Florenz Ziegfeld, can be termed "The Greatest Show On Earth." Not alone is it crammed with drama that tugs at your heart strings, but it over-

M.C.C. FACING DEFEAT

CHIPPERFIELD BOWLS WELL

Sydney, Nov. 21.
 A crowd of 35,000 saw the M.C.C. lose their five remaining first innings wickets for only 14 runs here to-day, the innings closing for 228, to which the Australian eleven, replied with 221 for 2.

On a very dry and dusty wicket, A. G. Chipperfield caused havoc in the M.C.C. ranks, claiming 4 wickets for 9 runs this morning, to dismiss the remaining English batsmen after only 27 minutes. His final analysis was:

	O	M	R	W
Chipperfield	23.1	4	68	6

Leyland batted 156 minutes for his 80, which included five boundaries, while Robins whose fielding later on in the day was an inspiration, hit up 53 in 90 minutes, including six boundaries.

Given just under an hour before lunch, the Australian eleven had scored 37 without loss. Later they were 83 for 0, and at tea they were 153 for 1. Having advanced their total to 221 for 2, play was then abandoned owing to bad light.

Dop Bradman revealed perfect footwork and timing during his innings for 83, which included eight boundaries and occupied 89 minutes. Together with Brown he added 103 for the second wicket. Fingleton scored 56 in 90 minutes and Brown 52 not out.

 M.C.C.: 228 (Page 49, Ames 76, Leyland 80, R. W. Robins 53, A. G. Chipperfield 8 for 69).
 Australian XI: 221 for 2 (D. G. Bradman 63, J. H. Fingleton 56, W. A. Brown 52 not out).

FINANCE COMMITTEE MEETING

Votes Totalling Over

BIG INCREASE IN PENSIONS

After the Legislative Council meeting to-morrow afternoon His Excellency the Governor will present for the consideration of the Finance Committee of the Legislative Council the following items of supplementary expenditure:—

(1)—Imports and Exports Office: Purchase of Government Prepared Opium, $33,700.

Prior to January 1936 payments for Hong Kong Government Opium manufactured in Singapore were made by book entries in the Singapore account of this Government. This account was closed on 31.12.35 by a payment to the Hong Kong Government of Straits $89,853.54 and subsequent shipments of opium must be paid for in cash. The total bill for 1936 is estimated at $33,700 for which no provision has been made in the current Estimates owing to the fact that the price of the new opium was not known until the first account was received early in September. A supplementary vote of this amount is therefore requested.

(2)—District Office, South: Incidental Expenses, $59. Provision made in Estimates $100.

Fifty-six of the cadastral plans of the District are tattered and illegible, and new plans are urgently required. The cost of replacement amounts to $59 for which no provision was made in 1936 Estimates. A supplementary vote for this sum is therefore requested.

The above is to be met from savings under Conveyance Allowances.

(3)—Harbour Department: Coal and Oil Fuel for Launches, $24,000. Provision made in Estimates $180,000.

Owing to drop in exchange a further sum of $24,000 is required to supplement the provision under this sub-head in the Estimates. A vote for this amount is accordingly requested.

(4)—Charitable Services: Mercantile Marine Assistance Fund, $2,500. Provision made in Estimates $10,000.

Owing to the drop in exchange and the number of calls on this vote, the sum provided in the 1936 Estimates has proved insufficient. It is anticipated that a further sum of $2,500 will be required to cover expenditure to the end of the year and a supplementary vote for this amount is requested.

(5)—Colonial Secretary's Office: Incidental Expenses, $100. Provision made in Estimates $1,400.

Provision made by Supplementary Vote $800. Total $2,000.

Since this vote was supplemented in July medical expenses for Unpassed Cadets studying in Canton have amounted to $194.25, and the amount provided has again proved insufficient.

A supplementary vote for $100 is therefore requested to meet anticipated expenditure to the end of 1936.

(6)—Police Force: Expenses of Anti Piracy Guards, $6,950. Provision made in Estimates $20,000.

The accounts for the third and fourth quarters, 1935, were not submitted by the Singapore Government until the beginning of this year and funds provided in 1935 Estimates to meet these charges lapsed. To cover this extra disbursement it is necessary to supplement the amount provided under this sub-head for 1936, and a supplementary vote for $9,950 is accordingly requested.

The above is to be met from savings under Police Force (1936 Estimates page 45 sub-head 20).

(7)—Imports and Exports Office: Conveyance Allowance, $100. Provision made in Estimates $25 sub-head 5), $4,740.

Subsequent to the completion of the Estimates for 1936, the motor allowance payable to one European Revenue Officer was increased from $40 per month to $80 per month, the amount to which he is entitled under the revised regulations, published in the 1936 edition of General Orders. Funds provided under the sub-head are

The defendant was arrested on Friday.

The complainants were Li Keung, a dyer, who gave the defendant $3; Li Wai, dyer, who gave the defendant $5; and Li Shek, also a dyer, who gave him $2.

The defendant was sentenced to six months' hard labour.

NEW EDITION OF ORDINANCES

The Gazette contains the draft of an Ordinance to provide for a revised edition of the Ordinances, and for a revised edition of the Regulations of the Colony.

The object of this Bill is to make provision for a new edition of the Ordinances of the Colony, to be known as "The Ordinances of Hong Kong (1937 edition)," and a collection of the Regulations of the Colony, to be contained in companion volumes to the Ordinances and published contemporaneously with them, under the title "The Regulations of Hong Kong (1937 edition)." The need for new editions of both Ordinances and Regulations has been apparent for some time and it is considered desirable that these should now be prepared.

Clause 7 provides that the new edition of the Ordinances shall include all the Ordinances in force on January 1, 1937, and also any un-repealed Ordinance passed before, but not brought into force on or before that date. The same clause also provide for a chronological table of Ordinance and an index to the Ordinance.

Clause 9 provides for the approval by proclamation of each volume of the Ordinances and Regulations after it is printed.

New Holy Trinity Church

BISHOP MOK LAYS CORNER STONE

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT CEREMONY

Before a large gathering of members and friends of the various churches in the Colony, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Mok Sau-tsang, of Canton, laid the cornerstone of the new Holy Trinity Church in Ma Tau Chung Road, Kowloon City, on Saturday afternoon.

Bishop Mok was presented with a silver trowel at the commencement of the ceremony by the Rev. Edward Y. P. Lee, Vicar of the Holy Trinity Church of Hong Kong, after which the entire audience joined in singing a hymn, at the conclusion of which the Bishop carried out the laying of the cornerstone.

A glass jar, containing a newspaper cutting of the Church, which had been prepared by Mr. Y. L. Sue, the Joint Secretary and Treasurer of the Church, was placed under the stone.

Two sacred songs were sung by the girls of the Victoria Home, which is situated next to the new church, after which the Bishop addressed the audience.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS

In opening his address, the Bishop pointed out the hardships and difficulties which were being experienced in the absence of permanent building for worship. Services were formerly held in a little ground-floor flat in Kowloon City but, owing to unfavourable circumstances, they had to move to another place. The latter is now being demolished but the Government had been good enough to grant them a substantial compensation towards the building fund of the new Church, which will be completed early next year.

An earnest appeal to the members of the Church to give their generous support was then made by the Bishop who explained that some expenditure will be necessary to install some of the equipment of the new Church which was coming from Fochow.

In conclusion Bishop Mok asked the Church community to give thanks to God for making it possible for them to have a permanent place of worship.

The speaker was thanked by the Rev. Mr. Lee for officiating at the ceremony, who also expressed, on behalf of the Church, gratitude for all those who attended the ceremony.

Among those who attended the ceremony were the Rev. Tsang Kai-ngok, of All Saints' Church, Mr. Y. L. Sue, Secretary and Treasurer of the Holy Trinity Church, Messrs. Y. T. Woo, L. K. Wong, Miss Blanchett, Mr. T. M. Wong, Chairman of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Wong, Miss Hols, the Rev. Lee Kau-yan, Miss Jennings, Mrs. T. S. Lam and many others.

CHURCH'S HISTORY

The history of the church dates back to 1800 when Miss Finney, a C. M. S. missionary visited and taught from Friday to Tuesday every week in the villages of the Kowloon City area. She also held weekly meetings for women in the home of Mrs. Ku Kai-tak, the Biblewoman, in Hok Lo Tsuen.

The first church for the district was built in 1902 when the Rev. Mathew Fong, retired from St. Stephen's, Pokfulam, came to live in Kowloon City. In March of the same year Miss Finney, who was transferred to Pakhoi, was taken ill and died in Hong Kong five months later.

In 1902 the Colonial Government, who had already granted a section of land on the Sung Wong Toi Hill for the erection of the church, reclaimed the land and gave in exchange another site on the other side of the road and compensation for the building.

LARGE CHURCH

With the pulling down of the first church, the Government granted a new and larger church which was erected on a new site below the C. M. S. Victoria Home and Orphanage. During the rebuilding of the second Holy Trinity Church (the present one), services were held for nearly two years in the Victoria Home Schoolroom, during which Pastor Fong, with the help of Archdeacon Barnister, procured from the Government the ruined Yamen Buildings within the old city walls.

HOUSEBREAKING

Ng Kim-hung, 25, unemployed, was charged before Mr. E. Hims-worth at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday for housebreaking at 2 Nga Tsai Wai Village, and theft of money and jewellery, valued at $137.

Detective Sergt. D. G. MacPherson said that on October 2 the defendant went into the premises through the roof and stole from Yeung Kwai-kui, married woman, $80, a gold finger ring, and a pair of gold bangles. On November 20, the defendant was arrested at Portland Street and admitted stealing. The gold ring and bangle were sold to a goldsmith for $80.

The defendant was sentenced to two months' imprisonment.

which Pastor Fong himself made and sold by thousands in Australia—his home for many years—and with subscriptions from friends, he repaired these buildings and transformed the old Confucian Temple into the present Tin Kwok Kau To Tong (Gospel Hall). Other buildings were transformed into the present Almshouses, the Boys' School, and the Free Dispensary.

The present Holy Trinity Church was completed and dedicated shortly before Easter, 1905, and the font was donated in memory of Miss Finney's work by the members of her brother's church in Lancashire, England. However, the tablet giving the details of the gift has since been stolen by thieves.

In 1933 the Colonial Government gave notice that the hill on which the second Holy Trinity Church was built in 1905 would be demolished. However, the Government has been most considerate and generously responded to the appeal with a gift of about 35,500 square feet in area, as well as a liberal grant in cash.

The new Church will be built in Chinese architectural design and will have a seating capacity of 600 seats. It will be completed before Easter.

INDIAN TO HANG

Found guilty by a jury of twelve of the crime of murder, Atma Singh, aged 32 years, Sikh police constable and Granthi, was sentenced to be hanged by Judge P. Grant Jones, in R.M. Supreme Court, last week. Atma Singh was charged with the murder of Bawa Singh, a fellow constable, in the bath-house of Pootoo Road Police Station, on October 14. Mr. Victor Priestwood, the Crown Advocate, conducted the prosecution, and Mr. H. A. Reeks appeared for the defendant.

Remarking:—"You will recognise, I think, the righteousness of the saying in an old book, 'Whoso sheddeth a man's blood, by man his blood shall be shed,' the Judge then passed sentence of death by hanging on the accused.

TELEVISION IN LONDON

Opening Of Regular Service

MORE STATIONS PROMISED

Public men have become used to talking to unseen audiences of listeners. At Alexandra Palace on Nov. 3, when the new television service of the B.B.C. was officially opened, the Postmaster-General and others had to address themselves not only to listeners but to "viewers." Within a radius of some 25 miles, "viewers" saw and heard a ceremony which the speakers rightly described as historic, marking as it did the inauguration of a service, complementary to broadcasting, that promises significant developments in the future, states "The Times."

The speakers taking part in the opening ceremony were televised, first by the Baird system and afterwards by the Marconi-E.M.I. system of transmission. After an introduction of the proceedings by the male television announcer, there was a speech by Mr. R. C. Norman, chairman of the B.B.C., who was the first to use the word "viewers" in its new meaning. He recalled that almost exactly 14 years ago the British Broadcasting Company, as it then was, transmitted its first broadcasting programme from Marconi House. The simple ceremony, he said, would doubtless seem in every respect primitive a few years hence to those who are able to recall it.

Next there were speeches by Major Tryon, the Postmaster-General, and Lord Selsdon, chairman of the Television Advisory Committee. Sir Harry Greer, chairman of the Baird Company, afterwards made a short speech during the transmission by the Baird system, and at this stage in the second transmission a speech was made by Mr. Alfred Clark, chairman of Electrical and Musical Industries, and director of the Marconi-E.M.I. Television Company. After the speeches there was a transmission by each system of British Movietone News events, ranging from Mr. Molison's arrival at Croydon after his trans-Atlantic flight, to the sea burial of Edgar Britten, and two variety items.

GOOD RECEPTION

As seen on the small screen of a receiver in a studio at Broadcasting House, the inaugural ceremony was more successful than those previously unacquainted with the achievements of television had expected. There was less flickering and more sharpness of detail in the second transmission of speakers at the opening ceremony than in the first, but in the transmission of the news events and the variety items there appeared to be little to choose between the two systems. It was a novel experience to see the faces and mannerisms of speakers whose voices were being broadcast, and those who were least shy in looking "viewers" in the eye succeeded best. The very successful transmissions of the male television announcer suggested that there is a technique to be learned by those who wish to be well televised.

Mr. R. C. Norman, in his speech at the opening ceremony, said that the Government should have entrusted them with the conduct of the new British Television Service. At this moment of the starting of television their first tribute must be to those whose brilliant and devoted research, whose gifts of design and craftsmanship, had made television possible. They wished also to record the guidance and encouragement which they had received from the two Television Committees over which Lord Selsdon had presided. As for the future, they knew already that television was much more complicated than sound broadcasting. They were encouraged in facing its intricate and fascinating new problems by the patience, the interest, and at times the indulgence, which had been shown during the recent test and trial transmissions. They hoped that this interest and tolerance would continue, for they would certainly need both. They were, however, confident that television, in its special combination of science and the arts, held the promise of unique, if still largely uncharted, opportunities of benefit and delight to the community. They were happy to think that some of its earliest opportunities would have as their setting the historic pageantry of next summer. The foresight which secured to this country a national system of broadcasting promised to secure for it also a flying start in the practice of television. At this moment the British Television Service was undoubtedly ahead of the rest of the world. Long might that lead be held.

THE NATIONAL INTEREST

Major Tryon said that they were launching a venture that had a great future. Few people would have dared, 14 or even 10 years ago, to prophesy that there would be nearly 8,000,000 holders of broadcast receiving licences in the British Isles to-day. The popularity and success of our sound broadcasting service were due to the wisdom, foresight, and courage of the governors and staff of the British Broadcasting Corporation, to which the Government entrusted its conduct 10 years ago.

They in the Post Office knew well how unsparingly Lord Selsdon had devoted his great ability and high personal qualities to the public interest, both as Postmaster-General and on the Television Committee. He was very pleased that, under his guidance, the Post Office had been able to co-operate, through the Television Advisory Committee, in the development of this new service. He also wished to pay a tribute to all those who had devoted their talents and their time to solving the very difficult problem of television.

THE CORONATION PROCESSION

Lord Selsdon said that he represented both the Television Committee, which originally investigated the possibilities of this new field, and also the Television Advisory Committee, which continued to advise regarding its development.

From the technical point of view he wished to say that his Committee hoped to be able, after some experience of the working of the public service, definitely to recommend certain standards as to number of lines, frame frequency, and ratio of synchronizing impulse to picture. Once these had been fixed, the construction of receivers would be considerably simplified, but, meanwhile, let not any potential viewer delay ordering a receiving set for fear that a change in these standards might put it out of commission almost at once.

It was an essential feature of the development plans that, for two years after the opening of any service area, no such change would be made therein. For at least two years, therefore, to-day's receivers without any radical alteration, would continue to receive Alexandra Palace transmissions. Just how wide this London Service area would prove to be was difficult to say with absolute certainty. Roughly speaking, it would cover Greater London, with a population of about 10,000,000; or, again roughly speaking, a radius of more than 20 miles with local variations. "There may," he continued, "be some surprising extensions. For instance, I should be unwilling to lay heavy odds against a resident in Hindhead viewing the Coronation procession in the light of experience here, we shall proceed with the location of a second and subsequent transmitting stations, according as public interest justifies this course. Technically, Britain leads to-day, and we shall try, in the words of Sir Anthony Clouston, to 'keep our light so shining a little in front of the rest.'

HONG KONG, NOVEMBER 23, 1936.

DIVINATION BY BEER-SUDS

In our delight at the headlong advance of natural Science we should not forget that her elder sister, the occult, is trying bravely to keep up with the times. At any rate in America.
It may be that the mechanism
of the American Constitution (though Bryce throws no light on this point) causes a sharp stimulation of prophecy and divination in the years of Presidential election: the deeper recesses of human nature cannot be truly satisfied by straw votes and statistical estimates. Everybody really prefers an omen to a graph, or for that matter a hunch to a tip. But, however that may be, according to recent reports from the United States, a National Association of Fortune Tellers, in their annual convention, has just been reviewing the fatidical situation in that country, which is apparently not all that it should be. In spite of their manifest need of sound prophecy, certain States
leave the arts of divination to language under legal bans, whilst in others these flourish so excessively that tea-leaves are actually being interpreted in public tearooms by tea-leaf readers who are not even members of the National Association. Things cannot remain thus. And it is naturally the concern of this body—or should it be styled a coven?—to make their country
properly sooth-conscious and open-minded, and to provide, by the issue of formal licences if need be (and even in extremity
by the picketing of blackleg Delphs), a consistent and competent corps of oracles.

What could be better? It is true that Cicero, who gave some careful thought to the subject of divination, opined that to himself a knowledge of the future
would be, if anything, a disadvantage. But he was exceptional. Most of mankind prefer to take any chance there may be of being forewarned and fore-
armed, and will be accordingly grateful to the president (or lady) of the National Association of Fortune Tellers for the assurance that the technique of divination
is going to be brought up to date. It is indeed to undergo what she terms "a streamlining process." Moore shall be Old no longer. In 1937 we shall not have to fall back on the tedious complexities of sciomanancy or veromancy, "sortes y argumane."
Rather shall we trust, says the Sybil
of New Jersey, to healtaps, or in

ASSOCIATION

Range Crowded Again

First Sunday Shoot

The Hong Kong Rifle Association held its first Sunday Spoon
and Practice Shoot of the season yesterday when nearly eighty members assembled in the morning on the naval range at Stonecutters, and competed for the usual spoons,
under the "King's" First Stage conditions.

In spite of the fact that units of the Regular Army and the Volunteers were away in camp, the range
was crowded, and although every target was in use, it was with considerable difficulty that shooting was completed in the time available. There is no doubt that the present season is going to be the best which the Association has yet experienced, and the keenness
which is being shown is well illustrated by the fact that several members of the 2nd Battalion,
The Royal Welch Fusiliers made a special journey by rail from camp
in order to be present.

From the point-of-view of personal comfort, the weather was all that could be desired, but from the angle of rifle-shooting, the wind was extremely tricky, and particularly at the longer range, was responsible for many poor scores.

S.I.M. Hill, of the 1st Battalion,
The Royal Ulster Rifles, had the distinction of making a "possible"
at 200 yards, using the "1914" rifle,
his sighting shot also being a
"bull," his performance, however,
was eclipsed by another member of the same unit—Lance-Corporal Trimble—who made a precisely similar score, again with a "bull"
for his sighter, but this non-commissioned officer was using the rifle "as issued," and therefore was debarred from the help afforded by the use of a sling, or of the aperture-sight. When it is realised that the bull's-eye at 200 yards is only five inches in diameter, it will be readily agreed that such a score

is a very meritorious one, and one,
moreover, which is seldom made.
Another indication of the keenness which is now being displayed
as regards rifle-shooting is that the number of members who have now qualified for a handicap is over 250, a noteworthy figure when it is remembered that each of these members must have fired at least three times, before such handicap can be given.

A gratifying response has been received to the circular letter which only reached the majority of the members of the Association
on Friday, regarding the forthcoming Annual Dinner, to be held at the Peninsula Hotel on Tuesday week, December 1, and there is every indication that the attendance will be on a par with the large numbers who are attending the Spoon and Practice Shoots on Wednesday afternoons, and during the week-ends.

Meanwhile the scores made by members at the ordinary shoots are being carefully recorded and checked, as the annual N.R.A.
"Inter-Colonial" Match has to be fired by the end of the year. This time, it is probable that the Army
Range at Kowloon City will be used,
as it is better known to most of the members than that at Stone-cutters or Taikeo.

The detailed results of the shooting yesterday morning are given below, in the case of the leading

Y.W.C.A. held a meeting in their rooms to welcome members.

Over one hundred members attended this pleasant gathering,
which was presided over by Mrs.
Wong Lam-hing.

After Miss Sin Tak-hing has read the association's report, the ceremony of the admission of the new members was conducted by Mrs. Sin Kwai-sang, each member being presented with a bronze ring, signifying union and cooperation in social reforms and advancement of China.

It is understood that the Chinese Y.W.C.A. has been in existence
for many years, greatly benefitting the Chinese women of this Colony, educationally, morally,
physically and otherwise.

ernment will intervene, in which case the Premier, M. Leon Blum,

If Gossip We Must

(BY "ANNETTE")

ENJOYABLE PARTIES.

Tuesday evening was a gay
evening for those who were lucky enough to have been asked to both of the very successful parties given. The Gunners had a cocktail party at their Mess, and crowds of people were there the party finishing up with the inevitable move across to the Grips or dancing at the Peninsula if you happen to strike luck and find yourself there on a dance night.
It was a really successful and enjoyable cocktail party and one can always expect to see half Hong Kong at their parties.

The second party of the evening
was given by Wing Commander and Mrs. A. G. Bishop, and was equally successful. Many people went on from the Gunners' party to the Bishops'. Mr. Eric Nelson, Lt.

Commander Banks, the Cavanagh
Mainwarings being a few of them.
Miss Duke was there. She has not been out here very long and is most attractive. Miss Joy Walsh was also present and very sweet.
She looked. The Morris' were also there, and Rosalie Alabaster, Mr.
Claude Burgess and many others.

THE DILWARA.

There was a large gathering on the troopship Dilwara on Friday
when she sailed for Home, but the parties seemed to get a little scattered as several people apparently mistook the time of sailing and arrived far too early in the morning and others missed it altogether.

In comparison to other troopships the Dilwara provides much more luxury. There is something rather sad about seeing one's friends off, specially in Troopers, but this time very few from Hong Kong were sailing.

AT THE HOTELS

Hong Kong's popular centres of entertainment, the Grips, the H.K. Hotel Roof Garden and the Gloucester Hotel also enjoyed crowded dance floors on Saturday night. The spirit of merriment prevailed and the hundreds of patrons were reluctant to wend
their way home when the closing hour came.

ROBBERS CARRY
DYNAMITE

Small Boat Raided

An armed robbery on a small boat was reported by Lam Fook, 44, a shop-keeper of Teng Chai Island.

He stated that while he was on the boat about fifty yards from Kan I Chau Island at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, six men drew alongside in another boat. They were armed with revolvers, knives
and sticks of dynamite, while four of them held lighted joss sticks.

After threatening him they took $31 Hong Kong money, $9 Chinese money, a gold finger ring, and a felt hat. The robbers then left in their boat in the direction of Tai Ho Wan Bay.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE

At about 6.30 p.m. on Saturday last, while the Ferry launch
"Man Yee" was on her way from Hong Kong to Shumshuipo, a third class passenger jumped overboard in an attempt to commit suicide.

A seaman named Kwok Kam
immediately jumped into the sea,
and succeeded in saving the man,
who said his name was Looy Jong,
aged 30 years and that poverty forced him to commit the rash act.—

MAURITIUS BARRED

It is reported that the Hong Kong Chinese Chamber of Commerce recently received a telegram from the Chinese Chamber of Commerce of South Africa, reporting that the Government of the Island of Mauritius had prohibited the entry of further Chinese immigrants from date.

old Chinese residents of the Island of Mauritius.—

to last 10 days.—

on the very spot where M. Salengro often received distinguished guests as Mayor of the town.

At least half a million people are expected at Lille to-morrow
for the funeral. Many will arrive
by special trains by which fares
will be reduced 60 per cent.

M. Leon Blum, Salengro's lifelong friend, will deliver an

DUKE OF GLOUCESTER

Command "Rumour"

A hint that the Duke of Gloucester may soon command the 10th Royal Hussars, in which he now holds the rank of Major, was given recently by the Earl of Air-lie at the festival dinner of the British Sailors' Society in London,
at which the Duke presided.

"I hope," said the Earl, "that the rumours which one hears may soon prove to be true, and that is that at not a very future date we shall see him commanding what we know to be the finest regiment
in the British Army or any other army."

On behalf of the Society, Lord Airlie presented the Duke of Gloucester with a bust of Lord Nelson, made out of copper taken from his flagship Victory, and mounted on wood taken from the same ship.

Boys from the Prince of Wales Sea Training Hostel formed a guard of honour at the banquet,
and were referred to in a message from the King which was read by the Duke. The message read:

"Please convey to all present at the anniversary festival of the British Sailors' Society my sincere appreciation of the loyal assurances which they have addressed to me as their patron. For many years past I have taken a special interest in the work of the Society and I am glad to hear that the Prince of Wales Sea Training Hostel has been so favourably reported on by the Admiralty."

Major-Gen. Sir Frederick Sykes,
hon. treasurer of the society, announced that the collections and promises during the dinner totalled £9,432.

DEATH OF MR. R. E.
HEMMINGSProminent Tientsin Architect Passes Away

It is with much regret that we have to report the death,
which occurred in the Victoria Hospital on Nov. 7, of Mr. Robert E. Hemmings, of Messrs. Hem-mings & Parkin, Architects, of Tientsin, at the age of 59 years,
states the Peking and Tientsin Sunday Times.

The deceased only returned from Home leave quite recently,
and appeared to be in excellent health and spirits, and the last person whom one would expect to succumb to illness so soon after his return.

Mr. Hemmings was born near Auckland in New Zealand, one of a large family of pioneer farmers. After spending his early youth on the estate, he went to sea in a sailing vessel,
after which he stayed for some time in Sydney, where he studied the building trades and prepared for his future career as an architect. He was a man of very practical instincts, which was showed by the fact that he journeyed from Sydney to Hong Kong as a ship's carpenter.
Arriving in Hong Kong he was apprenticed to the leading architects in that city, from whom he gained the experience
which was of great service to him when he went to Hankow.
In this latter city he took full share in the modern buildings
which have been erected there, including various godowns of specialized work for refrigeration.
One of the most important buildings in Hankow is known as the Hemmings Building. It was the securing of the contract for the Tientsin Country Club which caused his firm to turn their attention to Tientsin,
where many important buildings
have been erected by them, including the Chartered Bank, Perrin Cooper & Co., Arnold's,
etc. In Moukden he was the architect for the Hong Kong & Shanghai Banking Corporation.

A man of wide sympathy he endeared himself to everybody
by his simple faith and his readiness to help any "lame dog"
over a stile, and he will be long remembered as a fine type of the men who have done so much in the development of the treaty
ports of China.

LIBEL BILL IN FRANCE

Paris, Nov. 21.

A new bill for libel will be tabled

lines of the British libel bill and it is being pushed forward rapidly
since the death of M. Salengro, who was libellously attacked by a certain section of the press without redress.—

REBELS FAIL TO TAKE MADRID

STUBBORN RESISTANCE BY MILITIA

Severe Weather Prevents Air Raids

Madrid, November 21. Despite a fortnight's pounding of Madrid by land and air, the insurgents have failed to take the capital so far. They maintained a foothold in University City, but the Government claim to have recaptured two important buildings in the latest fighting. The insurgents are unable to advance in the Toledo and Segovia bridge areas owing to the stubborn resistance of the militia who have erected formidable barricades.

A Seville radio message says that the insurgents have progressed in the suburb south of Madrid and occupied several blocks of houses, inflicting heavy losses on Government troops and capturing much war material. A Barcelona message reports that the Government forces on the Aragon front have blown up the Huesca-Saragossa railway and destroyed an enemy train which was bringing up reinforcements.

The Madrid newspaper "El Sol" demands immediate evacuation of the civilian population at the capital so that only combatants remain.

Compulsory evacuation of the civil and non-combatant populace of the city has been ordered by the Defence Committee which has requisitioned a thousand taxicabs for the purpose of arranging that they return to the capital with food.

The commander-in-chief of the defence forces has announced his satisfaction with the way in which military operations are developing on the Madrid front.

The militia have recaptured the clinical hospital and ruins of Casa del Velazquez in University City and withdrawn from Casa del Campo which is now entirely held by the rebels. The militia are entrenched in the city bank of the Manzanares, checking the insurgent attack with intense machine gun fire.

Severe weather prevented air raids both yesterday and to-day.

He goes to Burgos with the rank of Charge d'Affaires.

RIVERA EXECUTED AT ALICANTE

Paris, Nov. 21. Senor Antonio Primo de Rivera, son of the late Spanish dictator, was executed yesterday morning by a Red shooting squad in the prison yard at Alicante gaol, where he had been interned, after having been sentenced to death by the Red People's Tribunal. The Spanish Fascists, it will be recalled, had warned the Premier, Senor Largo Caballero, that exceptional reprisals would be taken if the death sentence on Senor Primo de Rivera were executed.

SUIYUAN FRONT REPORT

Attack On Village Repulsed

Peking, Nov. 21. The first foreign report which reached Peking from the Suiyuan front arrived to-day, confirming the successful counter-attack by Suiyuan troops on November 18. That morning a force of about 3,000 Chahar troops attacked a village near Pingtichuan where firing was plainly audible. The village was defended by only 400 Suiyuan troops, but they held the attacking force at bay until reinforcements arrived, when a counter-attack was launched which successfully threw back the invaders with considerable losses.

The same sources confirm that aeroplanes had been used to assist the invaders. They did not drop the usual aerial bombs, but many hand-grenades which, however, were not very effective.

The invaders are reported to number between 15,000 to 20,000, not very well equipped and badly fed. They were outnumbered by the Suiyuan defenders.

Chinese sources report that Wang Ying had a narrow escape with his life on November 18 when the Chinese counter-attacked, carrying the invaders back past Wang Ying's headquarters. He narrowly escaped capture.

A later report from Pingtichuan states that the damage to the Suiyuan railway was done by plain-clothes men during the night. The railway service is now normal again.

EVACUATION URGED

Peking, Nov. 21. Immediate evacuation of foreigners from Suiyuan is requested by the provincial authorities in consequence of a report that Manchukuo and Mongol irregulars are preparing a general offensive from north Suiyuan, aiming at Kweihsia, the provincial capital, otherwise they will not be responsible for their safety. The request reinforces Nanking's communication to the powers.

The majority of Japanese residents have evacuated, but so far many foreigners have remained.

Mongol troops are pouring in to Pailingmao from Chahar.

SUIYUAN RAILWAY BOMBED

Peking, Nov. 21. Aircraft from Chahar bombed the Suiyuan railway between Fengchen and Pingtichuan, damaging a bridge and delaying the Peking-bound express for four hours, according to Chinese reports from Kaigan.

Further fighting occurred on the Suiyuan-Chahar border yesterday, when the Chinese troops repulsed four attacks by the Chahar forces.

General Fa Tso-yi has returned to Kweihsia, where he was given a warm reception by the people.

The possibility of a counter-offensive aimed at Changtu and Chahar is being discussed in Kweihsia, following the arrival of reinforcements.

EAST HOPEI MUTINY

Japanese And Chinese Kidnapped

Tientsin, Nov. 21. About 400 mutinous Chinese militiamen invaded Chengli railway station in East Hopei to-day and forcibly boarded a train going to Tientsin from Shanhai-kwan. They disarmed the railway police and robbed the passengers. After travelling 100 miles they left the train near Tongshan and headed for the interior, kidnapping a Japanese police officer, another Japanese and six Chinese policemen. The captives, however, were released a few miles from the railway.

When the train arrived at Tongshan Japanese troops took possession of it and went to Kaifeng in pursuit of the mutineers.

NOT LIBERATED

Tientsin, Nov. 21. The two Japanese captives mentioned earlier were not liberated. The mutineers have fled to the north, pursued by 300 Japanese troops. The mutineers belonged to the Militia Regiment of Yin Ju-keng's East Hopei autonomous Government, against which they revolted a few days ago. Yin Ju-keng's regime enjoys the protection of the Japanese.

BARRIE'S NEW PLAY

Hailed As Great Success

ELIZABETH BERGNER IN TITLE ROLE

London, Nov. 21. After eighteen months of vicissitudes and secret rehearsals, Sir James Barrie's latest play, "The Boy David" and the first he has written since 1922, was produced amid enthusiasm at King's Theatre, Edinburgh. A distinguished audience was present. The play which has a biblical narrative was specially written for Elizabeth Bergner who took the title role. The play was acclaimed by many to-night as Barrie's masterpiece.

Elizabeth Bergner

Godfrey Tearle played Saul and Sir John Martin-Harvey appeared in the role of the Prophet Samuel. At the conclusion of the play an uproarious call was made by the audience for Sir James Barrie. The call was taken by Miss Bergner as Sir James was absent suffering from lumbago.

The play will be transferred to London later.

Elizabeth Bergner, who was born in Austria, where she studied acting, is a famous continental stage and screen star. She created a sensation in her first British film, "Catharine the Great" which she repeated in her stage performance in "Escape Me Never" which was subsequently filmed at Elstree. She made seven films before she went to England in 1933. She recently completed the film version of Shakespeare's famous play, "As You Like It."

ANTI-JAPANESE SENTIMENT

Shanghai, Nov. 21. Despite the re-opening of the majority of the Japanese cotton mills, labour unrest, aggravated by political elements, continues in Shanghai. The police and other authorities were kept alert throughout the night in consequence of a rumour of a general strike, involving 50,000 textile workers, to be called in the morning. The move did not materialize, but it is understood that the police are expecting trouble.

The so-called "National Salvation" groups are reported to be very active stirring up anti-Japanese sentiment among the workers.

HITLER'S MESSAGE TO GREECE

"Hong Kong Daily Press" (Special) Berlin, Nov. 21. Chancellor Hitler telegraphed King George of Greece, expressing his sympathy with the Greek royal house on the occasion of the interment of King Constantine, Queen Sofia and Queen Olga on Greek soil. The papers here in describing the ceremonies of the laying to rest of the three royalities point out that King Constantine held the rank of Prussian marshal.

GERMAN TORPEDO BOATS

Call At French Port

"Hong Kong Daily Press" (Special) Paris, Nov. 21. The Ministry of Marine announces that the German torpedo boat flotilla composed of the torpedo boats Wolf, Tiger and Jaguar arrived at Brest in the afternoon. The French Government granted the request of the German Embassy for permission to call at Brest for repairs and refuelling.

U.S. TRADE IN CHINA

Severely Affected By Shipping Strike

Shanghai, Nov. 21. American trade in China has been severely hit as a result of the shipping strike, which is causing enormous losses, both in immediate business and future delivery. An even more important factor, American business men point out, is that there is less goodwill owing to their inability to fulfil existing contracts or to undertake new orders. "Our trade is going to our rivals and we may not get it back," declared a prominent shipping official interviewed by Reuter.

Many important companies in Shanghai have sufficient stock to last several weeks, but after that they will have nothing to offer their customers unless the cargoes awaiting shipment in America are released very shortly. Dealers in foodstuffs depending on a rapid turnover in small shops are especially hard hit.

The motion picture industry faces a severe shortage of films, which, unless the strike is settled shortly, will cause several theatres to close. These have overhead expenses of thousands of dollars a day.

PLOT TO KILL MOLOTOV

Allegations At Moscow Trial

Moscow, Nov. 21. A terrorist assassination plot was mentioned during the trial of the German engineer Stickling. A State witness, Drobuis, asserted that the accused was involved in a conspiracy to kill M. Molotov when he came in 1934 to visit the Oreis mine. The conspirator drove Molotov's car and staged an accident, but the car was travelling too slowly and Molotov escaped.

WRECKING GROUP

Moscow, Nov. 21. A visit to the Gestapo-German Secret Police was described by Stickling when cross-examined in open court. Stickling stated that when he was last on vacation, he visited the Gestapo where he spoke to an official regarding sabotage work carried out by him in the Soviet. Stickling confirmed the evidence that he conducted all the wrecking work upon the direct instructions or officials of a foreign state.

Other accused testified both to poisoning and explosion intentionally carried out by a counter-revolutionary wrecking group which "prepared mass murders of workers."

RUSSIA ANGRY WITH JAPAN

Retaliation For Accord With Germany

Moscow, Nov. 21. The Soviet Government has decided not to sign the Russo-Japanese fisheries convention as relation for the Japanese-German treaty.

Reuter learns that possibilities of other counter-moves like breaking off negotiations in Tokyo for establishment of a Manchukuo-Soviet boundary commission or cancellation of the recently granted Sakhalin oil concession are being seriously discussed in diplomatic circles.

ANGLO-EGYPTIAN TREATY

"Hong Kong Daily Press" (Special) Cairo, Nov. 21.

A speech by Prince Mohammed Ali at the opening of Parliament here expressed gratification that the new Anglo-Egyptian treaty had been signed at last after fifty years' struggle.

The speech, moreover, made clear that the Egyptian Government will immediately take the necessary steps to obtain admission into the League of Nations and will convene a conference of powers concerned in order to abolish "capitulations."

The speech, according to press reports, finally announced that measures for interior jurisdiction will be taken at once.

BARCELONA FEARS BOMBARDMENT

FRENCH CITIZENS TO EVACUATE

Travellers' Reports

Perpignan, November 21. Following General Franco's threat to bombard Barcelona, the French warships anchored there have proceeded outside the three-mile limit and will cruise along the coast.

A large number of travellers who have arrived from Barcelona express fears that the bombardment of the city by insurgent warships is imminent. They add that the French Consul has advised all French citizens to leave the city in view of the bombardment threat and that the Consul himself intended to board a French warship.

PRUDENT COURSE

London, Nov. 22. General Franco's warning to the Soviet and France that all ships which convey arms and ammunition to Barcelona will be sunk is prominently featured by the evening papers here.

The "Evening Standard" opines that the warning is likely to give rise to new difficulties for the French Government since, those authorities are now forced to make up their minds on what orders to give to French warships now stationed at Barcelona.

The paper adds that the most prudent decision would be to withdraw the warships in question from the Catalan port.

REPORTS CONTRADICTED

Paris, Nov. 22. It is officially stated that the reports stating all French warships have left Barcelona were due to a misunderstanding. The cruiser Duplex left Barcelona for Palma Majorca. The destroyer Albatros also left Barcelona, but has been replaced by another destroyer.

IRISH BRIGADE FOR SPAIN

London, Nov. 21. General O'Duffy, with 40 members of the "Irish Brigade," arrived at Liverpool to-day en route to Spain to join General Franco's forces. They will be joined by a contingent from Liverpool, from where they are sailing for Lisbon this afternoon. A large proportion of the men are said to have held high army ranks.

BRITISH AIR DEFENCE

"Hong Kong Daily Press" (Special) London, Nov. 21. A new air defence division with headquarters in York has been formed according to an announcement made by the War Office here. The division was formed from the units of artillery, engineering and the territorial infantry. The construction of large bomb-proof shelters are planned.

Arrangements, moreover, are being made to bring the people whose homes are not secure against poison attacks from London to the less exposed districts. The Government finally plans to maintain depots where gas masks may be obtained.

ROYAL COMMISSION ON PALESTINE

Jerusalem, Nov. 21. The Palestine Commission is considered by impartial observers to have made a workmanlike beginning in the first week of the enquiry. No Arabs were present at the public session held during the week, but they are preparing evidence to support their case.

Lord Peel, Chairman of the Commission, has intimated that it would be unfortunate if the Commission will be compelled to reach important decisions without the help of the Arabs.

ANOTHER VISIT BY THE KING

London, Nov. 21. Plans for the King's visit to South Staffordshire and Birmingham on December 9 and 10 are now almost complete. He will inspect the works of various industries in the areas where, in striking contrast to South Wales, unemployment is at its lowest point for years and the industry is thriving.

REPRESENTATIONS BY BRITAIN

Neutral Zone In Barcelona

London, Nov. 1. A reply is still awaited from the Burgos authorities to renewed representations made by the British Ambassador to Spain. The representations arose out of a communication received by the British Government of possible bombardment of Barcelona and a request was made that security in certain recommended anchorages at that port should in such event be guaranteed.

The newspapers discuss the question whether the insurgents have power and intention to assume belligerent rights of instituting blockade or of claiming the right of visit and search of vessels outside territorial waters. Such acts would, of course, be illegal if committed by an authority which has not been accorded belligerent rights, and it is taken for granted that meanwhile interference would not be tolerated. In the past, however, it has been the usual practice that foreign governments when confronted with a situation such as has now arisen have generally sought to protect the interests of their nationals by recognising the belligerency of both sides, which thereupon assume the rights and obligations attaching to belligerents.

RESERVOIR BANKS COLLAPSE

Tokyo, Nov. 21. The latest figures in the Oosawa disaster, when the banks of the reservoir on the copper mine property there in Akita Prefecture collapsed and washed away many of the miners' homes, are 210 killed and 592 missing, believed dead.

The education authorities estimate that at least 250 school children perished in the disaster. Sludge from the reservoir has spread like a fan to a depth of from six to 20 feet and it is believed that the majority of those missing met a horrible death under the mud. Conservative figures show that over 1,500 persons were overwhelmed, of whom 700 had miraculous escapes without any injury.

KENTUCKY GENERAL ACCUSED

Charge Of Murdering His Fiancee

Newcastle, Kentucky, Nov. 21. Standing statue-like, surrounded by State troopers, Brigadier-General Henry Denhardt, a well-known and picturesque military figure and a Kentucky veteran of three wars, heard a Grand Jury commit him for trial on a charge of murdering his fiancée, Mrs. Verna Taylor.

Mrs. Taylor's body, with a revolver alleged to belong to Brigadier-General Denhardt lying close by, was found in a roadside ditch on November 8 some 800 yards from the General's car, in which they had been for a drive.

Remarkable public hostility towards the General formed a climax to a demonstration in the court-room, where muttered threats were uttered against him. The police took every precaution and searched every spectator in the court-room for weapons. Judge Morgan ordered Brigadier-General Denhardt to be transferred to Louisville Prison, declaring that the local prison was "insecure" and there was the danger that "Denhardt might be rescued by violence."

FIRST ROUND SHIELD MATCHES

Kowloon, Navy, Athletic And East Lanes Out

POLICE SURPRISE VICTORY

Football during the week-end was devoted to the first round of the Shield in the Senior and Junior divisions of the League. A sensation was caused in the match between the Club and the Kowloon Chinese which was abandoned by the referee in the 12th minute of the second half. The Chinese were then leading by two goals to one. Apparently the Chinese protested against a penalty awarded for the Club.

The Royal Ulster Rifles travelled to the mainland where they eliminated Kowloon Football Club by 3-1 while South China "B" disposed of the Chinese Athletic by a similar score but only after extra time had been called.

In the Junior Shield, the Chinese Police "A" the Royal Engineers and the Royal Welch Fusiliers entered the second round at the expense of the Club, Athletic and European Police, respectively.

POLICE WIN

The Hong Kong Police, who have met with defeat practically every week-end since the beginning of the season, surprised their supporters when they defeated the East Lancashire by three goals to nil on the Kowloon F.C. ground yesterday afternoon in the first round of the Senior Shield. This was the first victory for the Police.

South China "A" Senior shield holders, defeated the Royal Navy at Causeway Bay by the odd goal in three.

In the Junior Shield, the Navy overcame the Medicals by five goals to three at Sookunpoo.

EXCITING MATCH

South China "A" Beat Navy

SENIOR SHIELD

(BY VOX POPULI)

Intense excitement and extraordinary scenes of animation prevailed at the Naval Ground, Causeway Bay, yesterday, among the spectators watching the struggle for mastery between the Royal Navy and South China "A". This was the fourth match of the week-end in the Senior Shield and great expectations of good football were centred on it. Nor were the spectators disappointed as the large crowd went away fully satisfied with the manner in which their money had been expended. First class football was witnessed and although the winners fully deserved their laurels yet it must be said of the losers that they put up a really spirited display and went down fighting to the last.

The game was capably handled by Mr. David Kossick. At 4 p.m. sharp he lined up the teams as follows:—

Royal Navy: Cocker, Wolverson, Harris, Laister, Bowers, Gardner, Boxer, Mugleston, McLeod, Wide and Tippetts.
South China "A": Fay Ka-ping, Lau Mau, Lee Tin Sang, Lee Kwok Wai, Lau Hing Choi, Leung Wing Chiu, Tso Kwai Shing, Tam Kong Pak, Fung King Cheung, Lai Shui Wing, Cheng Kwai Leung.

Wong Mei Shun was a notable absentee from the Chinese side eleven his place being taken by Lai Shui Wing.

South China "A" won the toss and set the Navy to face a strong sun. An early attack was easily repulsed by Wolverson and Harris. The exchanges were fairly even, both sides taking turns at attacking and defending. Both goals were bombarded, the South China backs in particular, showing great skill and accuracy in their placing of the ball. It was now the Navy's turn to attack and Lau Mau and Lee Tin Sang were hard pressed and corner after corner was the result. These however, were fruitless. In a sudden breakaway, Lai Shui Wing, scored a very neat goal for the visitors during a scramble in the Navy goal. Barely two minutes had elapsed when Harris, the Naval right back, further augmented South China's score by knocking the ball into his own net.

The football at this stage, if not polished, was very neat. The exchanges were now even but bad shooting by both teams spoiled good midfield play.

Half-time: South China "A" 2, Navy 0.

Right from the resumption, play was sensational, both teams doing their utmost to score and both keepers being called on in turn to save their claret. Both goals had narrow escapes. Tippetts for the Navy in particular having very hard luck. Time after time, too Wolverson cleared his goals and once he saved a shot on the line from Lai Shui Wing when the goalkeeper was out of position. It was now Tippetts' turn to show a clean pair of heels and in a combined breakaway, he fully justified his inclusion in the Navy team by scoring a wonderful goal five minutes from time. Excitement now rose to fever pitch with the Navy attacking strongly but the final whistle deprived them of their last chance of remaining in the Senior Shield competition.

COMMENT

For the losers, Laister was probably the hardest working player in the team. His passes were accurate and his playing was very sure. He was, however, well backed up by his left back, Wolverson, who played with uncanny precision all through the game and was the means of saving his side from a heavier defeat. McLeod, the centre forward, apparently declined the responsibility which usually rests on the shoulders of a player in his position. As he frequently passed the ball backwards every time he got a centre. On the whole, his display was only mediocre. He is altogether too slow to make a good centre-forward. Bowers at centre-half played a steady game.

For the winners, Leung Wing Chiu worked very hard but the same thing can be said of almost every player in the South China team. They played productive football and not a pass was allowed to go begging.

RIFLES V. KOWLOON (AT K.F.C.)

Showing improved form the Rifles beat Kowloon by 3 goals to 1 at Kowloon.

The first goal came when Ferguson, seizing on a pass from Campbell sent in a header which Minihinet was unable to hold, Ferguson catching the rebound to place the ball in the back of the net.

A movement by Bliss gave Blake the opportunity to score the equaliser, Honniball drawing the soldiers defence to allow Blake to net into an open goal.

A penalty was awarded against Kowloon for some reckless play in the goal area. Brown, however, failed to convert the resulting kick! Ferguson sent them ahead and the Rifles recorded their third goal just before the interval, a splendid pass from Brown leaving McGonigal little difficulty in netting.

Rifles: Connor, Pickering, Stevens, McGonigal, Moore, Miller, Edwin, Campbell, Ferguson, Docherty, Brown.

Kowloon: Minihinet, Everest, Bowen, G. White, Bliss, O'Connor, Eastman, V. White, D. Knox, Blake, Honniball.

MAMAK HOCKEY

Nomads Defeat "B" Coy. R.U.R.

PLAYER INJURED

An exciting Mamak Tournament hockey match was witnessed on the Murray Parade ground yesterday morning when the Nomads defeated "B" Company, Royal Ulster Rifles, by one goal to nil. H. Soares, playing at right back, for the Nomads, had the misfortune to injure his foot in the second half and had to retire from the game.

In the first half exchanges were equally shared, both goalkeepers having a busy time. It was not until five minutes from the end that S. A. Reed found the net with a fast rising shot that had Pickering well beaten.

FRIENDLY MATCH

Fielding only ten men, the Nomads were defeated by the Radio Sports Club in a friendly hockey match by the odd goal in three. The match was played at Caroline Hill. In the first half, J.H. Franco netted for the Nomads while Surjan Singh and S. Chowdhury scored the goals for the Radio in the second half.

S. CHINA "B" V. ATHLETIC (At Caroline Hill)

Excitement prevailed at Caroline Hill on Saturday, when South China "B" and the Chinese Athletic clashed in the Senior Shield competition. The South China team eliminated their opponents by 3 goals to 1, but they did not deserve such a decisive victory, for the Athletic surprised their supporters by monopolising the major portion of the play.

At the final whistle each team had scored one goal and extra time had to decide the issue. A complete relaxation on the part of Chinese Athletic lost them the game, for South China maintained their steady pace and were ever on the alert for possible chances.

The first goal came when Cheuk Shek-kam manoeuvred the ball up to Chan Tak-fai, the latter scoring a clever goal after four minutes' play.

With a few minutes, however, Lee Hung-chui responded with a good shot to equalise.

During extra time South China found little difficulty in penetrating twice in quick succession, Yeuk Hon-wai scoring the first goal and Cheuk Shek-kam increasing the lead.

South China "B": Wong Wah-guy, Leung Yin-chun, Chung Chi-yin, Lau Tin-san, Lam Tak-po, Henry Yeung, Yeung Shui-yick, Chan Tak-fai, Cheuk Shek-kam, Lee Shek-yau.

Chinese Athletic:—Tam Kwan-kon, Lo Wal-man, Wong Si-ping, Cheng Ying-kuen, Ng Tak-wing, Lo Wal-kuen, Lai Wah-dai, Chin Chi-fun, Lee Hung-ching, Lee Tak-kee, Cheung Moon-wing.

CLUB V. KOWLOON CHINESE (At Happy Valley)

The Chinese played fast, open football, the attack executing some splendid movements in their match with the H.K. Club, on Saturday. Tang Kwong-sun and Chow Man-chi, were the outstanding figures, with Tsui Ah-fai shining in midfield. Seven minutes from the kick-off the Kowloon Chinese took the lead when Lau Chun-san accepted a forward pass from Tsui Ah-fai to run through and beat Rodger with a low shot. Their success was short-lived, as a minute later "Ernie" Cheung levelled the score by netting a free kick from just outside the penalty area. In the second half the Chinese increased their score through Wong Wing-hon, after eight minutes' play, the "leader" accepting a left-wing centre to register with a powerful ground shot.

A sensation was caused when the game was abandoned. Briefly, the events that led up to the referee's decision to abandon the match can be tabulated thus: Twelve minutes after the resumption, at which stage in the game, the Chinese team were holding a narrow lead of 2 goals to 1, Duncan, the Club left-half, swung in a ball towards the waiting Elliot who was nicely positioned in front of the Chinese goal, but a quick interception by a Chinese defender deflected the ball for a "corner". While the defend-

WIN FOR ENGINEERS

A friendly cricket match played at Happy Valley yesterday, resulted in a win for the Royal Engineers over the Craigengower Cricket Club.

Batting first, the Sappers scored 168 for nine wickets, declared, the top scorers being Hoddnett 74 not out, Lieut. Barron, 22. Y. Abbas took three wickets for 27 and A.A. Lewis two for 24.

Craigengower were dismissed for 82. Barron, the Army fast bowler, dismissed six batsmen for 38 runs, while Shipp took two wickets for 7. Hoddnett bowled only one ball and captured a wicket.

ers were taking up positions to cover their goal and the Club winger was preparing to take the "flag kick" everyone was surprised to see the referee waving the Chinese players from the vicinity of the goalmouth and indicating the "spot".

JUNIOR SHIELD

Medicals Defeated By Royal Navy

(BY "VOX POPULI")

The R.A.M.C. engaged the Royal Navy in the first round of the Junior Shield at Sookunpoo yesterday afternoon. The Navy won by five goals to three.

The Medicals opened in quick manner and a terrific drive from Howells, the left back, enabled Harrison, centre-forward, to drive in a shot which completely beat Hurved, the Navy goalkeeper.

On resumption the Medicals again attacked and a pass from Harrison gave Stanton, outside right, a golden chance of which he made full use.

Undaunted, the Navy came back fighting and soon had the Medicals defence worried. Stone, the Navy left wing, sent in some wonderful shots and only the masterly play of Leverington, the military left back, prevented the sailors from scoring.

A corner kick gave D. Johnston his chance and he scored. The opening of the second half again found the Navy pressing and a fine movement on the left wing resulted in H. C. Johnstone scoring the equaliser.

The Medicals fell away slightly and the Navy, taking full advantage of this lapse equalised through H. C. Johnstone. The Navy again broke through and after some wonderful football seldom to be seen in the junior division, Stone beat Allen with a first timer.

The Medicals took on a new lease of life and a run through by Harrison resulted in the Medicals third goal but they were unable to stem the energetic tactics of the Navy. H. C. Johnstone sent in a pass to Spence who made no mistake to bring the score to Navy 5, Medicals 3.

NEW LIGHT ON CORONEL

How Disaster Might Have Been Averted

ADMIRALTY & OFFER FROM AUSTRALIA

How the disaster of Coronel would have been averted had the Admiralty followed the advice of the Australian naval authorities is disclosed by Capt. W. H. C. Thring, R.N., who was Director of the Australian Naval War Staff on the outbreak of war in some notes he has placed at my disposal, writes the Naval correspondent of the "Times".

As soon as the German squadron under Admiral von Spee was known to be at large in the Pacific, an Australian squadron, including the powerful battle cruiser Australia, was despatched in pursuit.

"Unfortunately," writes Capt. Thring, "all our plans were upset by orders to escort a New Zealand expedition to Samoa. This was a perfectly unnecessary expedition, for Samoa had no harbour, could supply nothing to the German squadron, and as a source of embarrassment to them on which we were counting."

SIX WEEKS LOST

Holders Lose Caer Clark Match

In a Caer Clark Cup hockey match played at the Valley on Saturday, the holders, the Central British Association were defeated by the Hong Kong Ladies by three clear goals of which Mrs. Donald, the new centre-forward, claimed two.

The game was very scrappy at times and the score was not an indication of the run of play, the losers missing two open goals.

Miss I. Woolley was greatly missed from the C.B.A. team.

Mrs. Donald opened the score for the Hong Kong Ladies in the first half and added another in the second. Mrs. Prophet netting the third goal just before the end of the game.

H.K. Ladies:—Mrs. J. Lunson; Miss E. M. Gray and Miss J. Smalley; Miss J. Dabziel, Miss R. Pope and Miss K. Glover; Mrs. F. M. Harrop, Miss X. F. Marsh, Mrs. Donald, Mrs. Prophet and Miss Ferguson.

'Y' LADIES WIN

Seen at their best the 'Y' Ladies defeated the Recreio Ladies by two clear goals on the Police Training School ground on Saturday afternoon.

The winners were much faster than their opponents and their passing was excellent.

Miss Z. Barros in goal saved some very good shots while the Recreio's backs Miss O. Botelho and Miss C. Osmund, played intelligent defence.

The winners scored both their goals in the first half through Mrs. Read.

'Y' Ladies:—Miss W. George; Mrs. R. Burke and Miss A. Fowler; Miss K. Tonge, Mrs. Starbuck and Miss E. Thomson; Miss O. Dabziel, Miss S. Dabziel, Mrs. M. Read, Miss M. Smith and Miss M. Westcott. Playing on the Club ground the 'Y' Ladies were well rewarded in sharing the two goals with the Hong Kong Ladies.

Fine play and combination by both teams made the game most exciting. The 'Y' Ladies were best served by Miss V. Bradbury and Miss J. Davis while in the defence Miss Fowler and Mrs. Barnes shone.

C.B.S. VICTORY

Being much faster on the ball the Central British School 'A' beat the Diocesan Girls' School by four clear goals.

The Diocesan Schoolgirls gave a very plucky show, but were very weak in clearances. Miss H. Bockler was their most aggressive forward, but was badly supported.

In the first half the C.B.S. scored three goals through Misses A. Martin, M. Baxter, and M. Bockler while in the second half Miss A. Martin secured another goal for the winners.

LOCAL RUGBY

Army And Club In Drawn Match

The Club and the Army first fifteen shared the spoils in their friendly rugby encounter, the Clubians scoring two goals and two tries (18 points) to the Army's two goals, a penalty-goal and a try (18 points) on the Army ground at Soonunpoo on Saturday.

Floyd, the Army fly-half, came in for his share of the lime-light with magnificent defensive work. The Club forwards were slightly overshadowed by the Army pack, in which Morgan, Harrison and Gillespie were conspicuous, while Watkins was hooking well in the opening half, although the Club had most of the ball in the second period.

HENDERSON'S DEBUT

Henderson acquitted himself favourably in his first appearance for the first fifteen sending out some perfect passes to Butcher.

Barry was the safer of the two backs and kicked a good length ball, while the Army backs made the mistake of running across the field instead of straight.

CLUB "A" BEATEN

After leading by a substantial margin at the interval, the Club "A" fifteen were defeated by H.M.S. Berrick by two tries and a penalty goal (9 points) to a goal and a try (8 points) on the Army ground at Soonunpoo on Saturday.

LOCAL PLAYERS PAIRED WITH VINES

H. Elsworn Vines was seen in a knock-up against some of the local players on Saturday morning on the Stand Court of the Hong Kong Cricket Club.

In the first doubles match, Vines partnered D. S. Green against F. J. Leys and J. Crawford. In a later match Vines was paired with T. A. Pearce against Paul Kong, the well-known former Chinese Davis Cup player, and Leys.

Tilden and Mr. and Mrs. Vines spent the afternoon at the Races at the Valley and left the Colony for Shanghai at midnight.

ARGONAUTS' RESERVES DEFEATED

MARKET*Harriman's Weekly Review

Saturday Nov. 21.

Messrs. G. A. Harriman & Co.'s weekly share report and market
review issued at noon to-day states:—

The week under review has not been particularly noteworthy for any outstanding features in our market or in Manila. Following upon a period of stagnation, local shares eased off about the middle of the week, due in part to settlement, liquidation, and also as an aftermath of the shaken-out given last week to Manila mining stocks.
Subsequently rates steadied and the week ends with buyers predominant and a definitely better tone prevailing all round. The same cannot be said of the Manila market,
which is slow to recover from the knock administered to it a week ago. For the time being buying interest here appears to have subsided, and to borrow a phrase from our American contemporaries, the present tendency appears to be "to sell on bulges." However, mining shares will repay watching and particularly the producing companies, so that we would advise our readers to be prepared to come in and pick up bargains.

A considerable business has been transacted in our two Electric stocks. Hong Kong were sold in quantity down to 51½, which price attracted buyers, so that they close in good enquiry at 52½ China Lights came under pressure and sold as low as $13 for cash. Buyers quickly appeared for this popular stock and they close $13.50 bid, sellers asking $13.65. Telephones (old) have eased to a buying rate of 28.25 and the new to $10. Star Ferries were the medium of business at $92 and $92.50. Hong Kong Trams dropped to $11.80, but rallied sharply to close $12.45 buyers. Wharfs exchanged at $108½ and $109, closing with sellers at the higher rate.
Providents (old) were sold down to $1.60, but closed at $1.85. A small parcel of Hong Kong Docks made $14. Cements have been a very active market, sales were made from $11.50 down to $10.60, closing in active enquiry at $10.90. Ropes now offer at $3.30 and Canton Tees are wanted at $2.05 cum 3% deliverend. Lands sold at $33.50, sellers over, but Humphreys have good buyers prepared to pay $9.40, or near offer. Hotels shaded off to $5.80, but met with good support which carried them back to $5.80 buyers closing. Ewos put on $1 to close $11.75 buyers. Raute sold as high at $13.70 on the improved interim dividend of 8d (the last quarterly dividend was 4d). Sterling issues continue firm with Banks in demand at $1690 and Unions at $590 ex div.

Philippine mining shares are mostly easier after early firmness
and the volume of business transacted in this section has shrunk
quite appreciably. Antamoks sold at $6.55 and $6.40, and there are still good buyers for this first class dividend payer. Fair sized parcels of San Mariclos were sold from $4.90 down to $4 closing and Snyces
were dealt in quantity at from 55
cts. to 85 cts. Demonstrations were supported early in the week up to $1.53, but the closing quotation is down again to $1.40 middle. Consolidated Mines were in good enquiry round 7½ after sales higher,
and both Atoks and Big Wicks kept steady throughout the week to close at 90 cts and 75 cts. respectively.
Machate eased to sales at 72½ cts.
Northern at 29 cts. and United Paracutes at $2.45.

Concluding comment:
Hong Kong market closes buoyant. Manila, easy, trend uncertain.

BUILDING FOR
THE R.A.F.Production Of New AeroplaneINGENUITY IN DESIGN

Yeovil, Nov. 5.

The new high-wing monoplane,
designed and built at the Westland Aircraft Works at Yeovil will probably be the simplest to produce of all the new types chosen for the R.A.F. It has no stressed skin on the wing or retractable under-carriage to complicate the construction of the wing. The type of construction is different from and superior to anything the company has undertaken before, yet it is at least as easy to arrange
and, from the standpoint of the squadrons which will have to maintain the structure, much more convenient. The new aero-plane is an example of obtaining remarkable results without having to demand too much from workshop staffs, writes the "Times"
aeronautical correspondent.

The significance of such a type
in a period of rapid rearmament needs no emphasis. It promises the two achievements which the public appear most to desire—a notable improvement in performance and a relatively high rate of production. These two matters are inter-related, for ingenuity in design has given high aerodynamic efficiency and has relieved
the designer of the need to adventure in fields which throw up large difficulties for the production expert to overcome. The aeroplane is full of novelties but they are not of the kind which involve a new engineering technique. One indeed took its origin in the benighted desire to lead the old class of wood-worker by an easy path into the world of metal work which is ousting his honourable craft.

AERONAUTICAL CURIOSITY
The Air Ministry has placed a large order for the new aero-plane, which is to serve the Army cooperation squadron. Delivery dates have been fixed, and the deliveries should be punctual. Subject to the expansion of the works and the provision of extra machine tools to allow of a bigger volume of work within a given period, the transition from the building of an older type of cooperation machine to the building of the new type should be smoothly made. The prospect of so confident a change is a tribute to the new aeroplane, yet if the change had been more difficult the aeroplane would have been worth the trouble. In two respects its wing is an aeronautical curiosity.
For the sake of securing a good outlook in all directions from the pilot's seat, the inner sections of the wings as well as the outer are tapered. This should have meant instability at low speeds and the precise opposite is in fact the case.

PASSENGERS

Departures By Shirala

The following passengers sailed
by the s.s. "Shirala" on Saturday:
—Mrs. H. B. Brewster, Mr. W. J.
Walsh, Mr. Percy Ronald Gum,
Mr. Lee Tian Lay, Miss Lau Won
Ngan, Mr. A. Berg, Mr. Ho Lan
Woon, Mr. Lee Chak Choon,
Madam Chow Yaw, Madam Chen
Chiang Lin and infant, Mr. Wong
Ngin Lok, Madam Wong Chiu Shee
and infant, Mr. Amador Golanco,
Mr. Tan Sen Chin, Miss Wong
Sook Ching, Madam Aurelia Arlantico de Nohria, Rev. and Mrs. A.
B. Gould, Miss C. Shabington, Mr.
J. Sauler, Mr. and Mrs. M. Bishan
Dass, Miss S. Bishan Dass, Mrs.
Raim Pearl, Mr. C. S. Spooner, Mr.
L. C. Agas, Mr. F. K. Modi, Mr.
D. R. Bishan Dass and Master K.
N. Bishan Dass.

Part of the explanation consists in the fitting of automatic slots along the whole of the leading edge of the wing; yet in this matter, too, a gloomy prophecy has been proved unsound. The slots on the inner sections of the wing are connected with the flaps on the trailing edge, so that the flaps, which steepen the glide, reduce the landing speed, and assist at the take-off, do not operate
until the wing is so near stalling
that the slots are drawn forward by the disturbed air currents. The theory that the flaps would be insufficiently operated by this device has had no support in practice. Mr. H. J. Penrose, the test pilot, to-day took the fully loaded machine off after a run of 120
yards, landed it, and brought it to rest after a run of 100 yards,
and flew it slowly across the aerodrome under full lateral control, with all the slots wide open and the flaps fully depressed.

BEST TO ITS TYPE

So determinedly stable is this machine that no one yet has succeeded in making it spin. The absence of vice in an aeroplane
which may have to be flown slowly
for reconnaissance or fire control is important. It is also to be remarked that the speed range is very wide. The combination of high speed which may take it quickly to a scene of operations,
with the ability to get into and out of the comparatively small fields which often have to serve as advanced landing grounds
makes the machine the best of its type yet produced. It is also the roomiest co-operation aero-plane and is capable of carrying a vast amount of the varied equipment which its tasks require. Its crew may fly in comfort and may feel happy about its ability to climb at the angle of a fighter
when once it is off the ground.
Design and construction have combined with the high output of a Bristol engine to make a big aeroplane fly as fast as only single-seaters have flown in the past.
Production may now be able to turn out a new type almost as quickly as in the past it built old types of much smaller dimensions.

IN THE EASTRelations With Russia And Japan

Lord Lloyd presided at the annual dinner of the Royal Central Asian Society, held at Claridge's recently, states the "Times".
Field-Marshal Sir Philip Chet-wode, speaking in memory of the late Lord Allenby, said that Allenby lived to see the world brought to the edge of financial and commercial ruin, and to see once more young men very near to the mouth of the cannon. History had repeated itself. They had told, the young men that soldiers were not wanted. He was, however, an optimist, and he believed the god of battles was going to give them
time to recover themselves. He thought they would have time to get back to what was their true
role in the balance of power—so strong from a military, naval, and air point of view that people would know that, although they did not want to fight, whichever side they chose would win.

Sir Francis Lindley, who proposed the toast of the Society, said that the centre of interest in the Far East was in the relations between Japan, Russia, and China, and it would require a prophet to foresee how the situation would develop. There was not merely rivalry between races, but between systems of government. The only thing which really interested him
was on which side British interests could best be served. It was humiliating for Englishmen who knew the position 30 years ago to see the difference which obtained to-day. They were then the predominant power in the Far East and their advice was listened to with respect. In the Far East today the only two countries which counted were Japan and Russia.
No doubt in the long run China
would reassert herself, but there would be a struggle, perhaps not an armed one immediately, between the Russians and the Japanese. It seemed to him that in that struggle their sympathies, though they need not be very pronounced, should certainly not be with Moscow.

Lord Lloyd, in reply, said he was convinced that the Royal Commission in Palestine would come to a sane just solution, so far as such a solution could be come to in the Palestine mess and muddle, but could they be so sure that the Government would have the courage and wisdom to give effect to the conclusions arrived at?

AGA KHAN SUED

The Aga Khan is the defendant
in a King's Bench Division action to be heard shortly arising out of the sale of his famous racehorse
Blenheim, Derby winner of 1930.

The action is listed as Dale and another person Mahomed Shah,
and will probably come before Mr.
Justice Horridge.
The first plaintiff is Mr. Raymond Michael Dale, of Rudgwick, Horsham, Sussex, the claim being for commission said to be due. Blenheim was sold recently to an American syndicate at a price stated to be

DECREASING DEMAND
ON CONTINENT*Electrification Effect

The effect of railway electrification abroad in lessening the demand for British coal, and the possibility of increasing home consumption, were discussed recently
by Sir Philip Lawson, M.P., a member of the Ministry of Transport advisory committee on railway electrification, in his presidential address to the Institute of Fuel in London, states the "Morning Post."
"The known decrease in coal consumption due to electrification in Austria, Sweden, Switzerland, and Germany," he stated, "must amount to nearly 2½ million tons per annum. Electricity is not only partially replacing steam for traction purposes, but is rapidly supplanting steam in industry. In many countries a large proportion of this is produced by water power,
which is taking the place of coal
formerly purchased in Great Britain."

Possible lines of development in the coal industry which he suggested were the increased production of benzol by our gas and coke industries, the use of gas for road transport, the practical development of vehicles making their own
"producer gas" from coal, and the use of storage batteries as the immediate source of power.

focused public attention on a branch of the Government Service which apparently cannot stand too much limelight.

This matter cannot be allowed to fade out of the public mind before a thorough investigation has been made.

What guarantee have we that this sort of thing will not occur again with similarly tragic results?

Yours sincerely,
"DOUBTFUL."

"WHY AND HOW?"

[The Editor, "Hong Kong Daily Press."]

Dear Sir,—It is interesting to read your articles on the epidemic in the "Daily Press." They not only tell us of the sad happenings in the Hospitals but of how people are continuing to suffer from this disastrous disease.

"Why and how did this outbreak commence?"

Yours faithfully,
"INQUISITIVE."

THE OXFORD GROUP

believe that they are practising certain forms of spiritual exercises and accepting other forms of spiritual and moral discipline, which were the common practice of the early Christian Church. In this claim they are following in a noble succession of other groups which each made its own separate and invaluable contribution to the life of the Christian Church. There were many of them, but the latest seen of them all is that which had its origin in the inspiration and experience of a man called Frank Buchman. My own experience of the Group lasted nearly three years, when for various reasons, I ceased to think of myself as a member of it, and regarded my loyalty to Christ and to his Church as being the primary loyalty of my life.

The central feature of the programme of the Group, I would describe to you as being a strong belief in the immediacy of our approach to God, and in His direct coming to us; that along with four absolute standards for the regulation of the Group's behaviour, absolute honesty, absolute purity, absolute unselfishness, and absolute love, constitute the Group's contribution to the religious life of our times. That the Group is undenominational is true only in the sense that a Union Church like ours, is undenominational, i.e., as we are, is composed of members of different denominations, in no sense has it superseded denominational distinctions and preferences. That was one of my biggest disappointments in the Oxford Group, I thought I had discovered a religious fellowship which was truly undenominational, instead I had found another Group which, apart from the assistance which it rendered to the individual life, encouraged its members to give a closer loyalty to their own Churches whatever they might be.

"LIFE-CHANGING" AGENCY

That is the programme of the Group for individuals, and the function of the Group is to be a "life-changing" agency. The Group spreads by the conversion of men and women according to its prescribed formula. Of the world aspect of this formula, Sir Reginald F. Johnston notes in his book, "Confucianism in Modern China" that "the Groups might do well to change their name from 'Oxford' to 'Confucian Groups'." "It is strange," he continues, "that educated Englishmen should report, as though it were a new discovery, a truth which Confucius taught in China well over two thousand years ago." On this point it is perhaps more fitting that I should quote you the words of the John Oman, a former Principal of Westminster College, Cambridge, and a truly saintly and scholarly man. In his book, "Concerning the Ministry," which consists of lectures delivered to students studying for the Church, he writes, "There is a new catchword which calls you to be life-changers. But you had better begin by being life-understanders, for it is mere impertinence to set out to change what, for all you know, may be better than what you propose to substitute for it. Nor, when you do know, may you have merely your own, perhaps rather mechanical, way of setting about the transformation, for even God proceeds by manifold wisdom. Moreover, as no one should be according to standard, even the life you may legitimately wish to change should not be re-fashioned according to your pattern, but to the full realisation of its own particular reflection of the infinitely varied image of God." A salutary warning against standardisation and mechanical pro-

NOTED DIPLOMAT PASSES

Mr. G. Bronson Rea

Baltimore, Nov. 21.

The death has occurred of the diplomat, Mr. George Bronson Rea, who was adviser to the late Dr. Sun Yat-sen before the Great War.

Mr. Bronson Rea, an American citizen, was a noted figure in Far Eastern politics. He was a vehement defender of Japanese policies both in his own journal in Shanghai, the "Far Eastern Review," and public utterances during his tours abroad. He subsequently acted as adviser to the newly formed state of Manchukuo.

cedure in religion! A Christian's primary duty is not to change lives, but to glorify God, and if in the course of such living the opportunity presents itself naturally and inevitably then and then only are we, infinitely fallible creatures, justified in meddling deliberately and intentionally with another life. Irresponsible evangelism may be the cause of grievous mental and spiritual harm. It is a task which dedicated and trained ministers undertake if not actually reluctantly, certainly with the greatest care. If it true that God works with manifold wisdom, and we Christians believe it is, surely it is nothing short of indecent, sinful, presumption, that we, beings, whose paltry wisdom is negligible and questionable even in its meagreness, should set ourselves up as 'life-changers.' The love of God working through us, may be the means of changing men, and of bringing them into His Kingdom, anything else at the best can only produce a mechanically moral man or woman, and God knows that the world and men are suffering from too much mechanisation already.

REALITY OF GOD

But to the Group we are indebted beyond words, for its insistence on the reality of God in personal life, the reality and value of personal religion, and moreover, it is just there that the Churches, and in that I include our own Church, are weak. True personal religion issues in true corporate religion—unless your religion and mine is a real thing in our own lives, unless God is the greatest reality and the greatest love of our lives, then our Church can never be strong, and without a strong Church we ourselves can never attain to all that it is possible for us as children of God. But here, the Oxford Group has failed of its own highest purpose its own greatest gift to our age, and has made its own private fellowship meetings and house-parties something which its members have come to regard as more than a substitute for the fellowship of the Church to which the Group owes its very existence. Before coming to Hong Kong, I had learned that the Oxford Group were a very strong fellowship in the Colony and I expected to find Church life a much stronger influence in social affairs than it is, but I have experienced in that connection the bitter meaning of the rather cynical beatitude, 'Blessed is he who expecteth little for he shall not be disappointed.' I cannot think of any place which could possibly have a greater number or a greater variety of religious fellowships than Hong Kong and yet the force of Christian opinion in the Colony is insufficient even to secure that fundamental of all Christian services, a truly religious education in publicly owned schools. And why is it insufficient? Because it is disunited and broken—it is not one fellowship! And I say this to every professed member of the Oxford Group, that if they cannot see the challenge of God, if they do not see the guidance of God in the necessity to unite the Christian forces of this Colony in one strong Christian fellowship then they are blind to the whole meaning and purpose of the Truth for which Christ died. We are a small community here and the weight of pagan influence is oppressive, surely, in the name of common sense, far less than for the love of God, we ought to unite forces, and by that I mean Churches and religious fellowships, for the sake of our brothers for whom Christ died. I make this challenge to the Oxford Group in Christ's name, and for his sake and I shall be more than happy to assist in whatever humble capacity I may possess to make this necessity a reality. Let me quote you a short passage from the last chapter from Stephen Foot's book, "Life Began Yesterday," and with that I close:

"Around you as you live you are touching other lives. Are they in need of help? God knows they are, and when you are ready, God will bid them come to you. In family, in business, among one's school friends, throughout the daily life, there are others looking to you for help, and if you fail them their problems remain unsolved. They have their place to fill in the great pageant of life; it may be God needs you to show them how to find it."
